THE SOUND OF SCISSORS: PAPER CHARACTERS BY TORBEN JARLSTRØM CLAUSEN

On view through
December 31, 2018

*Sponsored by the Danish
Sisterhood of America
Dronning Margrethe Lodge #15,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin*

Torben Jarlstrøm Clausen began as a paper cut artist in 2003. He lives in Odense, Denmark, the birthplace of the author Hans Christian Andersen who was also known as a skilled paper cut artist. In Danish this art is known as papirklip and has a long tradition. Clausen's interpretation of the paper cut tradition blends modern aesthetics with a sense of whimsy and optimism.

BALANCING ACT By Peter Juhl

On view
through March 17, 2019

Though the photographs in "Balancing Act" appear to defy gravity, they are indeed the product of concentration and a little bit of luck. Peter Juhl has been balancing stones casually for twenty years. He creates and photographs the work along the North Shore of Lake Superior, where the spectacular beaches provide ideal raw materials as well as a clean and colorful backdrop.

DENMARK, OCTOBER 1943: OCCUPATION AND RESISTANCE

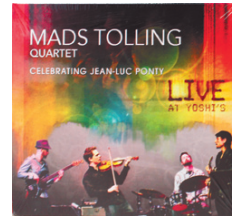

On view through March 24, 2019

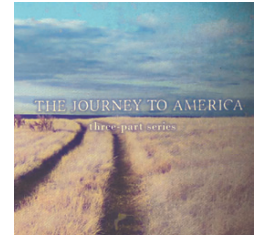

*Sponsored by The Danish Home,
Croton-on-Hudson, New York and
Thanks To Scandinavia, Inc., New York City, New York*
