EARLING – Rosemary Hahn, daughter of Margaret Carmelita (Denning) and Francis Luke Green, was born on October 22, 1930 at Council Bluffs. When Rosemary started grade school, she would ride her horse into Neola to school, she also attended Beebeetown Elementary school and then continued her education at St. Patrick's Catholic School in Neola where she graduated with the class of 1948.

Rosemary was united in marriage to Leo Hahn on October 29, 1955 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Neola where she was working at the time for Fr. Joseph Shaw as the church secretary. She also worked as a secretary for Henry Rollins, a lawyer in Neola. While making their home in Neola, Rosemary began her banking career at the Council Bluffs Savings Bank in Council Bluffs. In 1958, Rosemary and Leo made their home on the Hahn family farm outside Earling where they raised their two children: Mike and Mary Patricia who always went by her nickname Patti.

As the children grew older, Rosemary helped on the farm and later resumed her banking career working as a teller at Farmer's Trust and Savings Bank in Earling and the Defiance State Bank in Defiance.

After a serious accident involving her daughter Patti, Rosemary dedicated much of her life caring for her for over 28 years. Rosemary and Leo enjoyed traveling and taking train trips out west and as well as south to Texas. She was known for her great cooking and always putting the needs of her friends and family above her own.
