HANCOCK — Hazel Martin, daughter of Jesse and Sereta (Wilson) Tolle, was born December 20, 1922 in Persia. She attended Yorkshire Country School and graduated high school in Neola with the class of 1940.

On February 19, 1943, Hazel was united in marriage to Glenn Keith Martin in Ralston, NE. To this union, two boys were born: Byron and Bruce. Hazel and Keith made their home on the family farm west of Hancock. She and Keith farmed together for over 55 years.

She worked numerous jobs, including: assembling bomb fuses at the Jubilee Manufacturing Co. in Omaha during WWII, a cook at the Hancock Elementary School, the meat counter at the Avoca Grocery Store and as officer-in-charge at the Hancock Post Office.

Preferring the outdoors, as a new young bride Hazel taught herself how to cook. Her specialties included: biscuits and gravy, sticky cinnamon rolls, chocolate chip cookies, cream puffs with pudding and home-grown strawberry jam. Hazel had a very uplifting spirit who cared deeply for her family and friends. She made time for road trips with the girls, winter trips with Keith to Laughlin, NV, horse races with Bob and Mary Lou Emken, card games at her kitchen table and entertaining grandchildren at the annual Iowa State Fair.
